I really like using this book for my newly intermediate piano students who are just beyond elementary, and give it as a gift regularly. The students can practice these themes for recital that come from operas and ballet suites that we can study, and are familiar to their parents. The parents love that their children are learning "tunes" they recognize, and I find that encourages them to make sure their kids get adequate practice time.

I'm a piano teacher. I started using the Piano Adventure series about 3 years ago, and I really like them! This is a supplement book by that company. My student enjoyed the songs and were good for her to play. Try anything in this series, and I'm sure you'll be happy. I've been happy with them!

My daughter is just entering level 3 piano work and has very much enjoyed this book. She has already played several songs, and we love the arrangements.

This is a favorite book for my students who love classical music. It partners well with the piano adventure book. And I often use it for students who want a little something more.

Good selection, enjoyable music. Always use Faber, along with Junior Hanon and various Fake Books. Feel it is up to date and covers things in a reasonable time frame.

Very well done & easy for our children to understand.

my son loves this book!! All classics but songs that you hear. Challenging but well worth time put into practicing them!! :)

I'm a piano teacher and I love the Faber selections. The songs are great, the books are very pedagogical and the kids enjoyed it.
