M To M Of M/M (Paris): Fashion, Music, Art, Graphics, And Visual Styling From The Groundbreaking Design Studio

Synopsis

The definitive monograph of the visionary design team, celebrating their twentieth anniversary. Michael Amzalag and Mathias Augustyniak are among the most distinctive and influential voices in contemporary graphic design. Through close associations with the music, fashion, and art worlds, M/M have developed one of the most original and striking visual languages in the world. Originally working for independent music labels, M/M caught the attention of the fashion world, working for Calvin Klein, Jil Sander, Kenzo, Givenchy, Yohji Yamamoto, and Nicolas Ghesquiere at Balenciaga, eventually landing them the art directorship of Interview and French Vogue, as well as rich long-term collaborations with independent producers and music artists, notably Madonna and Bjork. Although print and an illustrative approach to typography lie at the heart of M/M's work, they have also produced unexpected three-dimensional designs for the stage, restaurants, and the perfume industry. Featuring interviews with key collaborators and design by the cutting-edge Graphic Design Facility, this ambitious monograph is a rare insight into the world's most intriguing--and iconoclastic--image-makers. About the book's organization: The alphabet is a recurring theme in the work of M/M (Paris), which provided an appropriate motif to create a "dictionary" of the projects that appear in these pages. Like the cutting and restacking of a pack of cards, the book has been rearranged so that it opens with the letter M for "Michael" and closes with the letter M for "Mathias." Accordingly, it opens on page 311 and concludes on page 310.

Customer Reviews

Probably the most impressive design work of the last 20 years. M/M are constantly reinventing the rules of the game and challenging their clients, and this book is a very detailed introduction to all the areas they have covered, from fashion to music, art, theatre, identity, etc. A must buy for every design student.

Inspiring. I love it.
