Customer Reviews

As an avid fan of coloring books I was very happy with my purchase of this book. I usually wait to order a coloring book until I can see what is inside of it (either in a store or from images posted by reviewer or the publisher), however, I took a gamble on the pre-order based on the cover alone and am I ever glad I did. Maturity Note: While there is no actual nudity the outfits in all of the images are as revealing as many of the adult women's Halloween costumes I have seen in recent years. Its pretty ladies in sexy clothing, some slightly suggestive poses (i.e. on par with the lingerie section of a Victoria Secret catalog), and, I repeat, there is NO nudity. If I was uncomfortable with looking at a Victoria Secret catalog, or with the person I was buying this for doing so, I would not buy this. Simply put, if the image on the cover makes you uncomfortable then don't buy this book. The Images: I color a lot and am often frustrated by books that have a great image on the cover but very few good images inside. I was very happy to find that, of the 46 listed images, all but 5 of them are of the same style and quality of design as the image on the cover. The 5 of 46 "illustrations to color" advertised on the cover that did not match the cover style felt like section separator for the style of characters for that section. Of the 5 separator images only one, the card suits, felt overly simplistic and boring, however, it still fit with the theme of the images near it (Alice in Wonderland). The images are very fun and sexy, definitely an adult coloring book just as advertised.
