Texts From Dog 2017 Day-to-Day Calendar

Synopsis

What would it be like if dogs could speak? What if they had smart phones and could text us their every thought? Based on the extremely popular textfromdog.tumblr.com, each full-color page of the Texts from Dog 2017 Day-to-Day Calendar features an imaginary, hilarious, and occasionally rude SMS exchange between Dog, the foul-mouthed British bulldog, and his owner, October Jones. In between crime fighting sprees and run-ins with the postman, there are romantic interludes with pillows, fetch sessions gone awry, and abusive banter only a bromance between man and his text-savvy dog can spawn.

Customer Reviews

I've been a fan of Texts from Dog on Facebook for sometime. As soon as I realised a book was out, I grabbed it on Kindle. Almost all of them are new, (not seen on the FB page) though I did see some repeats. Its hilarious as always but too short to justify a $13 price tag!

If you've read the Text from Dog Blog posts or liked him on Facebook - you're going to love this book. This, although the American Version, is distinctly British and is hilarious from the first page - the 'Introdogtion' right through to the end. Bonus drawings of Dog in various situations illustrate the texts they go with and each page has two text screens on each. (Unless one or more have been replaced with an illustration) So many Dog owners, myself included, will see their own dog in Dog's view of the world and the author's insight into the Canine Experience leaves one wondering if he isn't part Dog himself!

As someone who is always pretending the dogs can talk, this book made me laugh out loud at quite a few spots. Definitely a must read for dog lovers.

You're reading along and it's funny and all but you're just chuckling and THEN, you hit a ridiculously funny text and suddenly it's one of the funniest little books you've ever read. I gave it as a christmas present to someone in my house because I secretly wanted to read it too. A great gift for the discerning dog owner whose pet texts him at work :-)

I love these texts online! I was very pumped to have "bathroom" book for those thoughtful times we all have but the book is kind of awkward shaped and I was hoping for some new material (almost none) or at the very least a book of "best of" nope. I actually think the online blog flows better than the book. But thats just me. I still like it but I don't love it.

HYSTERICAL! I bought this Calendar for a friend, and she loved it! It is so funny that I will have to buy one for myself as well. I do agree with the other reviews, make sure you buy it for an adult (language reasons). I'm 27 with a sarcastic sense of humor, so I am not offended in the slightest.

This book is hilarious if you love dogs! It would have gotten 5 stars from me except that it's way too expensive for a short book on kindle. The texts are in big enough print to read on the kindle without a problem. I can't say that for Texts from Mittens - also a good book but the texts are in small print that you can't easily read like this book.

Some of the texts will make you laugh out loud - seriously! I think many dog owners and lovers would love this. It makes you feel as if you are actually receiving text from a dog that can understand human language, as well as speak it.
