Customer Reviews

I was recently introduced to Adam Rhine's artwork and coloring designs in his recently released coloring book "Hebrew Illuminations Coloring Book." I was so taken with the designs, that I also purchased this calendar so that I could color some of his work in a larger format. As with his book, the designs are beautifully drawn. A calendar of 16 months is a Jewish tradition but as I am not Jewish, I was happily surprised to receive 16 instead of 12 designs in the calendar. In the Gregorian calendar (or Western calendar), the dates start with September 2016 and continue through December 2017. These months correlate with the Jewish year 5776-5778. The calendar contains holidays and much more information as well. The calendar is a standard 12 x 12 inch size. It has a hanging hole at the top of each page. What is really great about the way the calendar is constructed is that it has a spiral binding at the top. That is really unusual for coloring calendars. I usually have to have a large tabletop to hold the calendar open or I have to bend it back on the crease which weakens it over time. This is what I experienced while coloring in and testing the paper of this calendar with my various coloring medium: 16 large format designs celebrating the Jewish Year. Designs are printed on one side of the page with the calendar printed on the reverse (with the exception of the first design which has the cover at its back.) Paper is heavy weight, white, slightly smooth and non-perforated. Spiral binding at the top of the page with plenty of room to cut out a design if you wish to frame it. Alcohol-based markers bleed through this paper. Water-based markers are mixed.
