Customer Reviews

I enjoy coloring books and in general enjoy mandala. The problem I tend to run into are mandala that aren't symmetrical. Call me OCD, but it drives me crazy when they're not symmetrical. The first thing I noticed when I was given this book was that each and every picture is symmetrical. Plus, the art is just beautiful. The pages are one sided and perforated for easy removal so you can easily make copies to use them over and over!

Inspired by nature, flora and fauna ingeniously intertwined, and brought together in balanced form, to create stunning, captivating mandalas. What a wonderful coloring book! As soon as I opened this book I had to color in it, I chose Fiskers Gel Pens (available on ) and started coloring the bumblebee on the first page with the metallic black, gold and silver, I was astonished , the bee actually looks like he is flying over the page and into the center of the Madala. The art in this book is amazing! This book has 30 different, beautiful 7 inch circular Mandalas; centered on each perforated page (the back of each page is blank.) (The 1st picture in the book is duplicated later in the book) Printed on heavy weight, bright white paper, This book is for adults and teens; it has many very tiny details With so many very tiny details, I recommend hard colored pencils, gel pens or very fine markers Vines or flowers or waves or fruit or a combination are creatively brought together with one or more of the following animals Bumble bees, Butterflies, Peacocks, Faces, Horses, Birds, Deer, Salamanders, Fish, Frogs, Rabbits, Lions, Praying Mantis, Giraffe, Zebra, Shells, Turtles, Dolphins, or Storks.

I'm really enjoying these nature inspired mandalas. There's 31 beautifully illustrated designs to color at your hearts content. As with the other Creative Haven coloring books, each design is printed on one side, and on perforated paper. Some of the nature designs incorporated are as follows:*

- Butterflies.*
- A variety of birds (peacocks, hummingbirds, storks etc.)*
- Tropical fish, dolphins and seashells.*
- Wild animals (zebras, tigers, giraffes etc.)*
- Florals, trees and vines ( one of my favorites is a design that looks like a mother nature type goddess, in the shape of a tree -- very pretty).

I did notice that compared to one of their other coloring books I own -- the perforated edge is a bit rougher looking when torn out. But, you can easily trim the pages, if need be. Markers seem to work best on this paper (I personally use brush pens.) These mandalas are relaxing to color, and the nature designs are a nice change of pace.

I like mandalas and this book is full of great designs. This is one of the best I've seen. I particularly like the use of nature. Butterflies, lizards, trees and lots of others. I highly recommend this book for adults. Creative Haven is a new line of books and I have several of them. I have Flower Fashion Fantasies, Outer Space, I can't recall the name but there's one that is Fantasy Landscapes and Sea Scapes.

I was looking for a Mandala book using Nature. This is the one! The images are beautiful and easy to follow. I am inspired to creating a few of my own. I highly recommend this book for the beginner mandala artist and the seasoned one.

When Anxiety or worries of the day threaten to overpower, I will get out my colored pencils and concentrate on coloring a Mandala, until my breathing is even and my mind more settled. Sometimes the answer to a problem will come to me in my relaxation and distraction. The drawings are beautiful and inspired. Fun to color. I gave this same book and another of mandalas to my sister, who agreed in the therapeutic and beauty of the mandalas.

Intricate designs combining nature and animals. A nice variety of mandalas, some very detailed. Perforated pages are nice. I like to tear the picture out so rotating it while coloring is easier. Colored pencils, markers, gel pens and ultra fine tip pens work well. Overall, a fun collection to color and each one takes time.

The mandalas are stunning, complex and creative. Will definitely lose myself in coloring the beautiful designs. Can't wait to get started.
