Ireland's Lighthouses: A Photo Essay

Synopsis

Lighthouses have played an important role on Ireland's extensive and dramatic coastline since the fifth century, lighting the way for many a cargo and passenger ship while ensuring that those who made their living on the sea made it home safely. During a project that lasted over ten years, John Eagle made several daring boat and helicopter trips to capture unique images of these wind-swept, wave-lashed buildings. This book brings together these striking photographs with informative text on their details, locations, and how to find them. Ireland's Lighthouses is sure to delight all those fascinated by these isolated guardians of the coast. "[A] splendid volume." Irish Echo

Customer Reviews

we are planning a trip to Ireland next year and it has a map of where each lighthouse is, if it is excessable, and directions,ans well as lovely pictures and lots more info.

I am very hopeful that this book will guide me to some of the lighthouses in Ireland. I'll know more after I return from Ireland.
