Real/Ideal: Photography In Mid-Nineteenth-Century France

exhibition curated by Karen Hellman at The Getty Museum. "Real/Ideal" explains why the medium divided into two routes--one of art and one of science--from its very inception. With breathtaking photographs, many of which are images of negatives that have never left France and have never before been publicly exhibited, this volume, and exhibition, is surely the most important addition to the field's scholarship in years.
