Customer Reviews

This is a really nice set, especially for someone who would like to try out coloring before investing in a bunch of supplies. It would also make a great gift at under $12. This book is different than all the other coloring books that I have. Firstly, it is bound at the top of the images, rather than the side (making it great for my left handed daughter). Also, the binding is more like a notepad with a glue binding. This allows it to open and lay completely flat (see my photos), and you can tear out a page even from the middle of the pad. The pages easily remove with no tearing or creasing. I do worry about what will happen to this binding after a lot of pages are removed--will it tear apart over time? The paper quality is very smooth, and quite thick. Each page is printed double-sided, but the image on the back is exactly the same as the front. Not sure why they did this? Inside the back cover is a 1/8" piece of cardboard to add stability. The 'pad' as they call it, measures 7.25" x 7.25" square, and is about 5/8" thick. The full page designs have a nice border--about 1/8" thick--so you don't have to color off the edges of the paper. Some of the designs are centered motifs like butterflies and mandalas. As far as the designs go, most of them are pretty detailed with very fine, crisp lines. This is fine quality vector artwork--no blurriness or pixelated lines. I would estimate that at least half of the designs are going to require fine-tip markers to fit in the areas (see my photos of the variety). Some of the designs are full page, some are centered filling about 60% of the page. Most of the images are going to take quite a few hours. There is a variety of mandalas, flowers, butterflies (lots!), and abstract designs.
